A message from Mrs Robinson

Dear Families,

It has been a pleasure to see so many of our Haxby Road families in school this week for our Inspire sessions. Inspire sessions are a great time for you to engage with school and be a part of your child's learning. You will see all the exciting things that happen in your child's classroom and find out about different ways to support your child's learning at home. If you find the times difficult to attend due to work commitments, please let your child's class teacher know and it may be possible that we can look at doing the sessions at a time more suitable to your needs.

We are aware that some families find it tricky after the Christmas holidays to settle back into routines. We also know that some families have suffered with illness and exhaustion during the break. Please do get in touch with the school office if your child is feeling unsettled or less-resilient or just needs some gentle support - we can help with check-ins or bespoke interventions. Mr Smart or Mrs Tasker will be available to arrange a meeting with you and put a support plan in place. We are always here to help.

Have a lovely weekend.

Warm wishes Mrs Robinson
