A message from Mrs Robinson

Dear Families,

The children have been very busy this week finalising their art work. It was an absolute pleasure to see so many of our families at the Art Show. The work the children produced was exceptional and I was so impressed with their hard work. The children really enjoyed talking about their masterpieces to their families and their faces were beaming with pride.

Next week is Children's Mental Health Week and we will be involving the children in related activities. Please see the mental wellbeing newsletter for more information. At Haxby Road we feel it is really important to teach the children to reflect on their feelings and articulate their worries. We are aware that children are growing up in a world which can feel complex and uncertain and we want to equip our children with the strategies that help them to deal with change.

I hope that you all have a lovely weekend and enjoy the slightly milder weather at the moment. Warm wishes Mrs Robinson
