

Message from Mrs Robinson ...

We hope you all had a wonderful and restful half-term break! We've had a truly brilliant start back at school, filled with exciting learning experiences. Our Early Years children were thrilled with a visit from the Purple Pig company, and our Reception class produced some absolutely amazing writing inspired by the wonderful animals they encountered.

Next week is Consultation Week, a time we truly value as it allows us to connect with you about your child's learning journey. We believe in building strong partnerships with our parents and carers, and these consultations are a vital part of that. We're eager to share your child's progress and discuss how we can continue to support them.

Meet Our Governors!

On Tuesday and Wednesday next week, two of our dedicated school governors will be available in the school office from 3:15 onwards. If you'd like to have a chat with them, please feel free to pop in. They're always keen to hear from our school community.

Your Feedback Matters!

We will also be sending out our parent survey next week. Your feedback is absolutely invaluable to us. It helps us understand what we're doing well and where we can make improvements. We are committed to continually striving to enhance our school and meet the needs of every child and family. We genuinely value your insights and appreciate you taking the time to share them with us.

We look forward to seeing you at consultations and hearing your thoughts!

Have a lovely weekend
Mrs Robinson

HOUSE POINTS

For World Book Day this year on Thursday 6th March 2025, we will be looking at our favourite characters! Get your favourite book character ready for battle! This World Book Day (2025), we will be taking part in the Ultimate Character Champion Battle! This exciting, oracy-focused activity will see children champion their favourite literary heroes and heroines, sharing their passion for reading and developing their speaking and listening skills. It's a fantastic way to celebrate the joy of reading and discover new literary favourites. All you have to do is dress as your favourite character and be ready to explain your favourite things about them!
