Around school this week!

HEALTHY EATING

In Fossgate class this week, the children have been looking at the nutritional value of food. Looking at how many calories different foods contain along with the amount of sugars and fats in line with our whole school topic of health and happiness.

SCULPTING

In Gillygate class, the children have been making Greek pots out of clay as they learn about the Ancient Greeks impact on our world today and the morals of many Greek myths.

YOUNG ILLUSTRATORS

Year 2 started their new class text this week - Lila and the secret of the rain - and it has inspired them to produce some great artwork based on the main character.

CELEBRATING COMMUNITY- CAREERS FAIR

We are delighted to be planning a Careers Afternoon on the 19th March and would love your support in helping to make it an inspiring experience for our children.

To make this happen, we need volunteers from our school community to come into school and pass on their knowledge to our future generations.

We are inviting parents and carers to volunteer to come into school for one afternoon (12:30-3:00) to share their career or profession with the children.

The aim of the afternoon is to broaden pupils' understanding of the wide range of jobs and opportunities available to them and to help spark curiosity for the future.

If this is something you would be interested in, please see the attached letter or speak with the admin team to discuss further.

YOUNG VOICES

Yesterday our choir attended the concert at Sheffield Arena along with Park Grove school. The children performed with such enthusiasm and thoroughly enjoyed the day! Mrs Martin, Mr Robinson and Mrs Eddon were incredibly proud of the children who took part in the concert. They represented our school brilliantly and a fantastic day was had by all.
